

ANNA TOSOLINI
CURRICULUM VITAE

Since February 2019 Anna Tosolini is the Chief Financial Officer di AMCO – Asset Management Company S.p.A. aiming the role of Head of the Business Unit in charge of planning & control, budget, business development, accounting, administration and report.

She graduated in 1996 cum laude in Economics at Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore in Milan.

From 1997 to 2002 she worked in KPMG Consulting S.p.A. in Milan, becoming a Manager in the Corporate Finance – Financial Institution Group dedicated on consulting activities in M&A, extraordinary finance deals and strategic planning, with a specific focus on financial, accounting, tax and legal aspects of the deal.

From 2002 to 2005 she worked in UBI Banca S.p.A. as Head of M&A and Equity Stakes with duties of organizing and managing special finance transactions connected to the equities and special projects of the Group.

From 2005 to 2011 she took the role of Senior Relationship Manager - Financial Institutions Group of BNPP, being responsible for relationships between BNPP Group and Top management of many Italian Banks, in a global and long-term perspective, providing innovative ideas for develop and/or optimize clients' activities, in collaboration with multiple business lines of BNP Paribas (ECM, DCM, Derivatives, Corporate Finance, AM, insurance, security services, etc.) and multiple business lines of BNP Paribas (ECM, DCM, Derivatives, Corporate Finance, AM, insurance, Security Services, etc.).

From 2011 to 2015 she worked in the BPER Group, initially as Head of the Advisory and M&A Team in Meliorbanca, than as Head of Special Projects in BPER S.p.A., managing, coordinating and supervising the team, dealing with define and execute special projects (i.e. group business development, special financial transactions related to the group equity stake portfolio, M&A operations, joint ventures, strategic partnerships, special transactions related to the NPL portfolio, etc.).

From 2015 to 2017 she was the Head of General Affairs and Corporate Development Department of Banca Popolare di Vicenza S.p.A., managing equity stakes and extraordinary deals at group level, aiming a role of address and coordinate the instrumental equity stakes of the group, dealing with corporate development initiatives (i.e. business development, M&A, joint ventures, partnerships, extraordinary deals on NPL portfolio) and managing a team of professionals within the Bank.
