AMCO INAUGURATES NEW OFFICES IN ROME

Rome, 19 September 2024. Today AMCO officially inaugurates its new offices in Rome in Via Barberini 50, a few steps away from Via Veneto and Piazza Barberini.

The Rome offices occupy the entire third floor of a historical building and have been renovated according to principles of environmental sustainability and energy saving and furnished in line with AMCO's brand identity. The spaces include about 40 workstations in open space mode, executive offices, a meeting room and two equipped break areas.

"After Naples, Milan and Vicenza, the new offices in Rome strengthens AMCO's presence in a strategic city, not only from an institutional but also from an operational point of view: Rome is in fact an important centre for many debt collection activities," explains Andrea Munari, CEO of AMCO.

In line with AMCO's Sustainability strategy - which has already obtained the LEED Gold and Fitwel certifications for corporate well-being for its Milan headquarters - the Rome offices have been equipped with innovative systems for thermal and acoustic optimisation, as well as for water saving. Finally, the location of the offices facilitates sustainable mobility.
